LEGISLATIVE DEPARTMENT.

No. 187 T., dated the 21st July, 1908.

THE following further Report of the Select Committee on the Bengal Local Self-Government (Amendment) Bill, together with the Bill as amended by the Committee, is, by order of the President, published for general information:—

THE BENGAL LOCAL SELF-GOVERNMENT (AMENDMENT) BILL, 1908.

FURTHER REPORT OF THE SELECT COMMITTEE.

WE, the undersigned, Members of the Select Committee to whom the Bengal Local Self-Government (Amendment) Bill, 1907, was re-committed, have incorporated in the Bill the provisions framed by the Government relating to (1) the prevention of the diversion of the road-cess and (2) sanitation, and have the honour to submit this, our Report, with the Bill as amended by us annexed hereto.

2. The provisions for preventing the diversion of the road-cess are contained in clauses 25(3), 26(1a), (5), 26A, 59(4) [sub-clause (h2)] and 64 of the annexed Bill, and those relating to sanitation are contained in clauses 42A, 53 (sections 115 to 118C) and 59 (8a) and (11). For ready reference, these clauses are marked, in the Bill, with lines.

3. In the first group of provisions we have made slight alterations in the Government draft of clauses 26 (5), 59(4) [sub-clause (h2)] and 64 [sub-clause (c)].

4. In the second group of provisions, relating to sanitation, we have made the following alterations on points of substance:—

(1) In sub-section (1) of the new section 116, we have given power to Union Committees to cause privies to be removed, and to cause private drains to be constructed, altered or removed. Privies are often erected by the side of tanks, and their retention in such a position necessarily leads to the fouling of the water.

(2) We have restricted sub-sections (2), (3) and (4) of the same section (which empower Union Committees to require work to be done by owners or occupiers) to the removal of huts or privies and the construction, alteration and removal of private drains. We consider that the other improvements authorised by sub-section (1) should be carried out by the Committees themselves, since they are of a public character, without calling upon owners or occupiers in the first instance to undertake the work.

(3) We have inserted a section (118AA) giving powers of entry for the purpose of making inspections or executing work under the new provisions.

(4) We have altered section 118B so as to declare that an assessment for the purpose of providing extra funds for meeting the cost of executing work under the new provisions shall not be imposed unless it is authorised by a resolution passed at a special meeting by the votes of not less than two-thirds of the members of the Union Committee.

(5) We have also revised the same section so as to declare in more precise terms what portions of the Village-chaukidari Act, 1870, or the Chota Nagpur Rural Police Act, 1887, as the case may be, are to apply to this assessment.

(6) We have also altered sub-section (2) of the same section so as to declare that the amount to be assessed on any one person shall not exceed seven rupees per mensem, and that the assessment may be made payable either in a lump sum or in periodical instalments.

(7) In section 118C we have reduced from six to three months the time allowed for an appeal from an order of the Union Committee under the new provisions, and have substituted a sub-committee of the District Board for the Magistrate, as the appellate authority.

5. We recommend that the Bill, as now amended, be circulated for opinion, and that an early date should be appointed for the submission of opinions, to admit of the Bill being passed during the present session.

I SIGN this Report subject to the following note of dissent :—

NOTE OF DISSENT.

For the purpose of promoting rural sanitation, the imposition of a special tax has been provided in section 11B under clause 53 of the Bill. The tax is to be levied from "owners and occupiers of the property" within the Union, and in this respect the method of assessment is essentially at variance with that provided in the Village-Chaukidari Act, 1870, and the Chota Nagpore Police Act, 1887, though the Bill as regards the levy of the tax professes to follow those enactments. Those Acts render the owners or occupiers of houses and persons having kutcheries for collecting rents liable to assessment—see section 14 of the Village-Chaukidari Act, and section 7 of the Chota Nagpore Police Act. The use of the word "property" in the Bill (section 118B) instead of "houses" and "kutcheries" as in the aforesaid Acts materially enlarges the scope of the special tax so far as the assessees are concerned, making it co-extensive with the road cess. Reading the portion of the Bill dealing with Unions, as a whole, I venture to think that this is not intended.

In the case of a tax on persons according to their circumstances and property for the sanitary welfare of limited areas, I would prefer to follow the Bengal Municipal Act, 1884, which makes such a tax leviable from occupiers only—see section 98 of that Act.

14. Every raiyat who, immediately before the commencement of this Act, has, by the operation of any enactment, or by custom or usage or otherwise, a right of occupancy in any land, shall, when this Act comes into force, have a right of occupancy in that land notwithstanding the fact that he may not have cultivated or held the land for a period of twelve years. [1885, s. 19 (1).]

Definition of "settled raiyat."

15. (1) Every person who, for a period of twelve years, whether wholly or partly before or after the commencement of this Act, has continuously held as a raiyat land situate in any village, whether under a lease or otherwise, shall be deemed to have become, on the expiration of that period, a settled raiyat of that village. [1879, s. 6, paras. 1, 2, 3. 1885, s. 20.]

(2) A person shall be deemed, for the purposes of this section, to have continuously held land in a village notwithstanding that the particular land held by him has been different at different times.

(3) A person shall be deemed, for the purposes of this section, to have held as a raiyat any land held as a raiyat by a person whose heir he is.

(4) Land held by two or more co-sharers as a raiyati holding shall be deemed, for the purposes of this section, to have been held as a raiyat by each such co-sharer.

(5) A person shall continue to be a settled raiyat of a village as long as he holds any land as a raiyat in that village and for three years thereafter.

(6) If a raiyat recovers possession of land under section 71, or by suit, he shall be deemed to have continued to be a settled raiyat notwithstanding his having been out of possession more than three years.

(7) If, in any suit or proceeding, it is proved or admitted that a person holds any land as a raiyat, it shall, as between him and the landlord under whom he holds the land, be presumed, for the purposes of this section, until the contrary is proved or admitted, that he has for twelve years continuously held that land or some part of it as a raiyat.

The Chota Nagpur Tenancy and Settlement Bill, 1908.

(Chapter IV.—Occupancy-raiyats.—Clauses 16—18.)

Bhuinhars and Mundari khunt-kattidars to be settled raiyats in certain cases.

16. The following classes of persons, namely:—

(a) where any land in a village, other than land known as manjhihas or bethkheta, is entered in any register prepared and confirmed under the Chota Nagpur Tenures Act, 1869,—all members of any Bhuinhari family holding land in such village, and Ben. Act I of 1869.

(b) where any village contains land not forming part of a Mundari khunt-kattidari tenancy, and an entry of Mundari khunt-kattidari tenancies or of Mundari khunt-kattidars in such village has been made in any record of-rights as finally published under this Act or under any law in force before the commencement of this Act—all male members of any Mundari khunt-kattidari family holding land in such village, shall be deemed to be settled raiyats for the purposes of this Act, in regard to the raiyati land which they cultivate in such village; and the provisions of sub-sections (4), (5) and (6) of section 15 shall apply to such persons.

Settled raiyats to have occupancy rights.

17. (1) Every person who is a settled raiyat of a village within the meaning of section 15 or section 16 shall have a right of occupancy in all land for the time being held by him as a raiyat in that village. [1879, s. 6, para. 1; 1885, s. 21.]

(2) Every person who, being a settled raiyat of a village within the meaning of section 15 or section 16, held land as a raiyat in that village at any time between 1st January, 1907, and the commencement of this Act shall be deemed to have acquired a right of occupancy in that land under the law then in force; but nothing in this sub-section shall affect any decree or order passed by any Court before the commencement of this Act.

Effect of acquisition of occupancy-right by landlord.

18. (1) When the immediate landlord of an occupancy holding is a proprietor or a permanent tenure-holder, and the entire interest of the landlord and the raiyat in the holding become united in the same person by transfer, succession or otherwise, such person shall not retain a right of occupancy in the holding, but shall hold the same as a proprietor or permanent-tenure-holder, as the case may be; but nothing in this sub-section shall prejudicially affect the rights of any third person. [1885, s. 22.]

(2) If an occupancy-right in land is transferred to a person jointly interested in the land as proprietor or permanent tenure-holder, he shall be entitled to hold the land subject to the payment to his co-proprietors or joint permanent tenure-holders of the shares of the rent which may be from time to time payable to them; and, if such transferee sub-lets the land to a third person, such third person shall be deemed to be a tenure-holder or a raiyat, as the case may be, in respect of the land.

Illustration.—A, a co-sharer landlord, purchases the occupancy holding of a raiyat X. A is entitled himself to hold the land on payment to his co-sharers of the shares of the rent payable to them in respect of the holding. A sub-lets the land to Y, who takes it for the purpose of establishing tenants on it; Y becomes a tenure-holder in respect of the land. Or A sub-lets it to Z, who takes it for the purpose of cultivating it himself; Z becomes a raiyat in respect of the land.

(3) A person interested in any estate, tenure, village or land, whether solely or jointly with others, as a temporary tenure-holder, ijaradar or farmer of rents or as a mortgagee in possession shall not, during the period of his lease or mortgage, acquire by purchase or otherwise a right of occupancy in any land comprised in his lease or mortgage:

Provided that nothing in this sub-section shall prohibit the acquisition of occupancy rights by any tenure-holder or farmer of rents who by established custom or usage has a right to acquire the same.

Explanation.—A person having a right of occupancy in land does not lose it by subsequently becoming jointly interested in the land as proprietor or permanent tenure-holder, or by subsequently holding the land in ijara or farm.

21. An occupancy-raiyat shall not be ejected by his landlord from his holding, except in execution of a decree for ejectment passed on the ground— [1885, s. 25.]

(a) that he has used the land comprised in his holding in a manner which is not authorized by local custom or usage and which materially impairs the value of the land or renders it unfit for the purposes of the tenancy, or

(b) that he has broken a condition, consistent with the provisions of this Act, and on breach of which he is, under the terms of a contract between himself and his landlord, liable to be ejected.

Devolution of occupancy-right on death.

22. If a raiyat dies intestate in respect of a right of occupancy, it shall, subject to any custom to the contrary, descend in the same manner as other immovable property: [1885, s. 26.]

Provided that in any case in which, under the law of inheritance to which the raiyat is subject, his other property goes to the Crown, his right of occupancy shall be extinguished.

Enhancement of rent.

Presumption as to fair and equitable rent in case of occupancy-raiyat.

23. The rent for the time being payable by an occupancy-raiyat shall be presumed to be fair and equitable until the contrary is proved. [1879, s. 8, para. 2 1885, s. 27.]

Confirmation of rents enhanced prior to commencement of this Act.

24. When the rent of an occupancy-raiyat whose rent is liable to enhancement has been enhanced before the commencement of this Act, otherwise than by a Deputy Commissioner or Deputy Collector acting under section 24 of the Chota Nagpur Landlord and Tenant Procedure Act, such enhanced rent shall be deemed to be lawfully payable— Ben. Act I of 1879.]

(a) if it has been actually paid continuously for seven years before the commencement of this Act; and

(b) if it is fair and equitable;

but not otherwise:

Provided that, where the rate of rent lawfully payable by an occupancy-raiyat for his holding has been made an issue in any suit for arrears of rent, and the Court has arrived at a finding on that issue, the rate of rent so found shall be lawfully payable by the raiyat for the holding.

Methods in which rent of occupancy-raiyat may be enhanced

25. (1) From and after the commencement of this Act,—

(a) in any area for which a record-of-rights has not been finally published under this Act or under any Act in force before the commencement of this Act, or for which an order has not been issued under this Act or under any Act in force before the commencement of this Act for the preparation of such a record, the money-rent of an occupancy-raiyat whose rent is liable to enhancement may be enhanced only by order of the Deputy Commissioner passed under section 27; and [1879, ss. 21, 22. 1885, s. 28.]

(b) in any area for which a record-of-rights has been finally published as aforesaid, or for which an order has been issued as aforesaid for the preparation of such a record, the money-rent of an occupancy-raiyat whose rent is liable to enhancement shall be enhanced only by order of a Revenue-officer passed under Chapter XII.

(2) No enhancement of such rent made after the commencement of this Act in any manner other than that referred to in clause (a) or clause (b), as the case may be, whether by private contract or otherwise, shall for any reason be recognized or given effect to in any suit or proceeding in any Court.

Contents of application to Deputy Commissioner for enhancement.

26. (1) Every application to the Deputy Commissioner for the enhancement of the rent of an occupancy holding shall specify:— [1879, ss. 22, 23.]

(a) such particulars as may be prescribed regarding the area, situation, local names, quality and boundaries of the parcels of land constituting the holding;

(b) the rates of rent (if any) payable by the raiyat for the different classes of land constituting the holding, and the yearly rent lawfully payable for the holding at the date of the application;

(c) the rates (if any) generally prevailing in the village for the different classes of land;

(d) the date (as nearly as it can be ascertained) when the rates of rent generally prevailing were last adjusted in the village;

(e) the rates which the applicant desires to demand; and

(f) the grounds on which the applicant considers that he is entitled to the enhancement claimed;

(2) Sections 142 to 145 shall apply to every application made under this section.

Procedure on receipt of such application.

27. (1) When any such application has been received, the Deputy Commissioner— [1879, s. 24.]

(a) shall forthwith give notice of the contents thereof to the raiyat, and

(b) may, if he thinks fit, order a measurement of the land, and

(c) may, upon consideration of all the circumstances set forth in the application, and after hearing any objection advanced by the raiyat, by order, fix such enhanced rent, or otherwise vary the rent for the said land, as to him may seem fair and reasonable, for such period, not being less than ten nor more than twenty years, as he may think fit:

Provided that no enhancement shall be ordered except on one or more of the following grounds, namely,— [U. P. Act II of 1901, s. 43(1).]

(i) that the rate of the rent paid by the raiyat is below the prevailing rate paid by occupancy-raiyats for land of similar quality and with similar advantages;

(ii) that there has been a rise in the average local prices of staple food-crops during the currency of the present rent;

(iii) that the productive powers of the land held by the raiyat have been increased by an improvement effected during the currency of the present rent, otherwise than by the agency or at the expense of the raiyat:

Provided also that no enhancement shall be ordered which is, under the circumstances of the case, unfair or inequitable: [1885, s. 35.]

Provided, further, that all enhancements shall be limited in the prescribed manner (if any).

(2) The rent as fixed or varied under sub-section (1) shall be payable by the said raiyat from the commencement of the agricultural year following the year in which the order is passed, and may be recovered in any suit instituted against him for arrears of rent.

(3) Nothing in this section shall bar the right of a raiyat to claim at any time under section 33 a reduction of the rent previously paid by him.

Power to direct gradual enhancement.

28. Where the Deputy Commissioner considers that the immediate enforcement of the full enhancement ordered under section 27 is likely to be attended with hardship, he may direct that the enhancement shall be gradual; that is to say, that the rent shall increase yearly by degrees, for any number of years not exceeding five, until the limit of the full enhancement has been reached. [1885, s. 26.]

Meaning of "enhancement."

29. The word "enhancement" (with its grammatical variations), as used in sections 24 to 28, shall not include an increase of rent in respect of land held by a raiyat in excess of the area for which rent has previously been paid by him, or in respect of the conversion of upland into korkar; but shall include any commutation of rent payable in money into rent payable wholly or partly in kind.

Increase of Rent in respect of Excess Area.

Application for increase of rent in respect of land held in excess of the area for which rent was previously paid.

30. (1) Where land is held by an occupancy-raiyat in excess of the area of which rent has previously been paid by him, no increase shall be made to the rent payable by him, except by order of a Revenue-officer passed under Chapter XII or by order of the Deputy Commissioner passed on an application made to him by the landlord. [Cf. 1885, s. 52.]

(2) Every such application shall specify—

(g) the amount of the said increase,

(h) the manner in which the said increase has been, or should be, assessed, and

(i) any other prescribed particulars.

(3) If a survey and a record-of-rights have been made under this Act, or under any other law in force before the commencement of this Act, in respect of any land referred to in clause (b) or clause (f) of sub-section (2), the "area and description" required by those clauses, respectively, shall be specified by stating the plot number, area and class of each field included in the land, as shown by such survey and record.

(4) Sections 142 to 145 shall apply to every application made under this section.

Procedure on receipt of such application.

31. (1) When any such application has been received, the Deputy Commissioner. [Cf. 1885, s. 52.]

(b) shall refer to the entry (if any) relating to the tenancy in the record-of-rights prepared under this Act or any other law for the time being in force,

(c) may, if he thinks fit, order a measurement of the land held by the raiyat, and

(d) may, upon consideration of all the circumstances set forth in the application, and after hearing any objection advanced by the raiyat and making such further inquiry as the Deputy Commissioner may think necessary, order such an increase, whether progressive or otherwise, as he may consider to be fair and reasonable:

Provided that an increase of rent shall not be ordered where it would contravene any local custom or usage prohibiting an increase of rent in respect of the increase in area of a holding.

(2) When any increase has been so ordered, it shall be payable from the commencement of the agricultural year following that in which the order is passed, and may be recovered from the raiyat in any suit instituted against him for arrears of rent.

Savings.

32. Nothing in sections 30 and 31 shall prohibit a landlord—

(a) from settling new lands with a raiyat, in any manner authorized by law, in addition to the area already held by him, or

(b) from assessing rents on lands converted from upland into korkar in accordance with the general custom or usage prevailing in the village.

Reduction of Rent.

Application to Deputy Commissioner for reduction of rent.

33. (1) Any occupancy-raiyat wishing to claim a reduction of the rent previously paid by him may present an application to the Deputy Commissioner to assess the rent on the land in respect of which such reduction is sought and (if necessary) to measure the land. [1879, s. 27.]

(c) may, upon consideration of all the circumstances set forth in the application, and after hearing any objection advanced by the landlord, by order, fix such reduced rent, or otherwise vary the rent for the said land, as to him may seem fair and reasonable, for such period, not being less than ten nor more than twenty years, as he may think fit:

Provided that no reduction shall be ordered except on one or other of the following grounds, namely,— [1885, s. 38.]

(i) that the soil of the holding has, without the fault of the raiyat, become permanently deteriorated by a deposit of sand or other specific cause, sudden or gradual;

(ii) that there has been a fall, not due to a temporary cause, in the average local prices of staple food-crops during the currency of the present rent.

(8) The rent as so fixed or varied shall be payable by the raiyat from the commencement of the agricultural year following the year in which the order is passed, and may be recovered in any suit instituted against him for arrears of rent.

(9) Nothing in this section shall bar the right of the landlord to claim at any time an enhancement under section 27 of the rent of such raiyat.

Meaning of "reduction."

34A. The words "reduction" and "reduced rent," as used in sections 33 and 34, shall not include a decrease of rent made on the ground that the land held by a raiyat is of less area than the area for which rent has previously been paid by him. [Cf. 1885, s. 38, and cl. 29 of present Bill.]

34B. (1) Where the land held by an occupancy-raiyat is of less area than the area for which rent has previously been paid by him, no decrease shall be made in the rent payable by him, except by order of a Revenue-officer passed under Chapter XII or by order of the Deputy Commissioner passed on an application made to him by the raiyat. [Cf. 1885, s. 52, and cl. 30 of present Bill.]

(e) the date (as nearly as it can be ascertained) when the said general rate was last adjusted in the village,

(f) the area and description of the lard held by the raiyat at the time of making the application,

(g) the amount of the decrease claimed by the raiyat in his rent on the ground that the land held by him is of less area than the area for which rent has previously been paid by him,

(h) the manner in which the said decrease has been, or should be, assessed, and

(3) If a survey and record-of rights have been made under this Act, or under any other law in force before the commencement of this Act, in respect of any land referred to in clause (b) or clause (f) of sub-section (2), the "area and description" required by those clauses, respectively, shall be specified by stating the plot number, area and class of each field included in the land, as shown by such survey and record.

Provided that a decrease of rent shall not be ordered where it would contravene any local custom or usage prohibiting a decrease of rent in respect of the decrease in area of a holding.

(2) When any decrease has been so ordered, it shall take effect from the commencement of the agricultural year following that in which the order is passed, and may be set off by the raiyat in any suit instituted against him for arrears of rent.

Commutation of Rent payable in Kind.

Application for commutation of rent payable in kind.

35. (1) When any occupancy-raiyat pays for a holding rent in kind, or on the estimated value of a portion of the crop, or at rates varying with the crop, or partly in one of those ways and partly in another, or partly in any of those ways and partly in money, then the rent so payable shall not be altered, whether by private contract or otherwise, except on the application of either the raiyat or his landlord to have the rent commuted to a money-rent. [1885 s. 41.]

(2) Such application may be made to the Deputy Commissioner or a Revenue-officer.

(3) When any such application is made, the Deputy Commissioner or Revenue-officer may determine the sum to be paid as money-rent, and may order that the raiyat shall, in lieu of paying his rent in kind or otherwise as aforesaid, pay the sum so determined.

(4) In making the determination, the said officer shall have regard to—

(a) the average money-rent payable by occupancy-raiyats for land of a similar description and with similar advantages in the vicinity;

(b) the average nett value of the rent actually received by the landlord during the preceding ten years, or during any shorter period for which evidence may be available;

(c) the charges incurred by the landlord in respect of irrigation under the system of rent in kind, and the arrangements made on commutation for continuing those charges; and

(d) improvements effected by the landlord or the raiyat in respect of the holding.

(5) The order shall be in writing, and shall state the grounds on which it is made and the time from which it is to take effect.

(6) When any such order is made by a Deputy Commissioner, it shall be subject to appeal as provided in Chapter XVI.

(7) When any such order is made by a Revenue-officer, an appeal shall lie, in the prescribed manner, to the Commissioner, or to any officer appointed by the Local Government to hear such appeals.

(8) If the application is opposed, the officer shall consider whether, under all the circumstances of the case, it is reasonable to grant it, and shall grant or refuse it accordingly. If he refuses it he shall record in writing the reasons for the refusal.

(9) Nothing contained in this section shall bind or authorize any officer acting hereunder to assess on any holding any amount in excess of a fair and equitable rent.

Period for which commuted rents are to remain unaltered.

(1) Where the rent of a holding has been commuted under section 35, it shall not, except on the ground of a landlord's improvement or of a subsequent alteration of the area of the holding, be increased for fifteen years; nor shall it be reduced for fifteen years, save on the ground of alteration in the area of the holding or on the ground that the soil of the holding has, without the fault of the raiyat, become permanently deteriorated by a deposit of sand or other specific cause, sudden or gradual. [1885, s. 40A.]

(2) The said period of fifteen years shall be counted from the date on which the order takes effect under sub-section (5) of section 35.

Provided as follows:—

(a) the rent of a raiyat having khunt-katti rights shall not be enhanced if his tenancy was created more than twenty years before the commencement of this Act; and [1879, s. 19.]

(b) when an order is made for the enhancement of the rent paid by any such raiyat for any land, the enhanced rent fixed by such order shall not exceed one-half of the rent payable by an occupancy-raiyat for land of a similar description and with similar advantages in the same village.

CHAPTER VI.

NON-OCCUPANCY RAIYATS.

Initial rent and lease of non-occupancy-raiyat.

38. Subject to any local custom or usage, a non-occupancy raiyat shall, when admitted to the occupation of land, become liable to pay such rent as may be agreed on between himself and his landlord at the time of his admission, and shall be entitled to a lease only at such rates and on such conditions as may be so agreed on. [1879, s. 9. 1885, s. 42.]

Effect of acquisition by landlord of the right of a non-occupancy-raiyat in his holding.

39. The provisions of section 18 shall apply in the case of the right of a non-occupancy-raiyat in his holding, in the same way that they apply to an occupancy-right.

Conditions of enhancement of rent of non-occupancy-raiyat.

40. The rent of a non-occupancy-raiyat shall not be enhanced except by registered agreement or by agreement under section 42. [1885, s. 43, para. 2.]

(a) on the ground that he has failed to pay an arrear of rent;

(b) on the ground that he has used the land comprised in his holding in a manner which is not authorized by local custom or usage and which materially impairs the value of the land or renders it unfit for the purposes of the tenancy;

(c) on the ground that he has broken a condition, consistent with this Act, on breach of which he is, under the terms of a contract between himself and his landlord, liable to be ejected;

(d) where he has been admitted to occupation of the land under a registered lease, on the ground that the term of the lease has expired;

(e) on the ground that he has refused to agree to pay a fair and equitable rent determined under section 42, or that the term for which he is entitled to hold at such a rent has expired.

Conditions of ejectment on ground of refusal to agree to pay a fair and equitable rent.

42. (1) A suit for ejectment on the ground of refusal to agree to pay a fair and equitable rent shall not be instituted against a non-occupancy raiyat unless the landlord has tendered to the raiyat an agreement to pay the rent which he demands and the raiyat has, within six months before the institution of the suit, refused to execute the agreement. [1885, s. 146 (1) to (9).]

(2) A landlord desiring to tender an agreement to a raiyat under this section may either—

(a) file it, in the office of such Court or officer as the Local Government appoints in this behalf, for service on the raiyat, or

(b) send it to the raiyat direct, either by registered post or by any other means.

(3) When an agreement has been filed, under clause (a) of sub-section (2), in the office of any Court or officer, such Court or officer shall forthwith cause it to be served on the raiyat in the manner provided by section 252 for the service of notices.

(4) When an agreement has been served on a raiyat under sub-section (3), or when it is proved to the satisfaction of the Court that an agreement has been sent to a raiyat by registered post, or, if sent to him by any other means referred to in clause (b) of sub-section (2), has duly reached him, the agreement shall, for the purposes of this section, be deemed to have been tendered.

(5) If a raiyat on whom an agreement has been served under sub-section (3), or to whom an agreement has been sent under sub-section (2) clause (b), executes it, and within one month from the date of service files it in the office from which it issued, it shall take effect from the commencement of the agricultural year next following.

(6) When an agreement has been executed and filed by a raiyat under sub-section (5), the Court or officer in whose office it is so filed shall forthwith cause a notice of its being so executed and filed to be served on the landlord.

(7) If the raiyat does not execute the agreement and file it under sub-section (5), he shall be deemed, for the purposes of this section, to have refused to execute it.

(8) If a raiyat refuses to execute an agreement tendered to him under this section, and the landlord thereupon institutes a suit to eject him, the Court shall determine what rent is fair and equitable for the holding.

(9) If the raiyat agrees to pay the rent so determined, he shall be entitled to remain in occupation of his holding at that rent for a term of five years from the date of the agreement, but on the expiration of that term shall be liable to ejectment under the conditions mentioned in section 41, unless he has acquired a right of occupancy.

(10) If the raiyat does not agree to pay the rent so determined, the Court shall pass a decree for ejectment.

(Chapter VI.—Non-occupancy Raiyats.—Chapter VII.—Lands exempted from Chapters IV and VI.—Chapter VIII.—Leases and Transfers of Holdings and Tenures —Clauses 43—47.)

(11) In determining what rent is fair and equitable, the Court shall have regard to the rents generally paid by non-occupancy raiyats for land of a similar description and with like advantages in the same village and (if the Court thinks fit) in adjoining villages.

Decree for ejectment when to take effect

43. A decree for ejectment passed under this Chapter shall take effect from the end of the agricultural year in which it is passed. [1885, s. 46 (10).]

Restrictions on transfer of their rights by raiyats.

47. (1) No transfer by a raiyat of his right in his holding or any portion thereof,— [1879, s. 10B.]

(a) by mortgage or lease, for any period, expressed or implied, which exceeds or might in any possible event exceed five years, or

(b) by sale, gift or any other contract or agreement, shall be valid to any extent:

Provided that a raiyat may enter into a bhugut bandha mortgage of his holding or any portion thereof for any period not exceeding seven years.

(2) No transfer by a raiyat of his right in his holding or any portion thereof shall be binding on the landlord unless it is made with his consent in writing.

(3) No transfer in contravention of sub-section (1) shall be registered, or shall be in any way recognised as valid by any Court, whether in the exercise of civil, criminal or revenue jurisdiction.

(4) At any time after the expiration of the period for which a raiyat has, under this section, transferred his right in his holding or any portion thereof, the Deputy Commissioner may, in his discretion, on the application of the raiyat, put the raiyat into possession of such holding or portion.

(5) Nothing in this section shall affect the validity of any transfer (not otherwise invalid) of a raiyat's right in his holding or any portion thereof made bonâ fide before the first day of January, 1903.

48. No decree or order shall be passed by any Court for the sale of the right of a raiyat in his holding, nor shall any such right be sold in execution of any decree or order: [1879, s. 10A (1).]

Provided as follows:—

(a) any holding may be sold, in execution of a decree of a competent Court, to recover an arrear of rent which has accrued in respect of the holding;

(b) any holding may be sold, under the procedure provided by the Public Demands Recovery Act, 1895, for the recovery of a loan granted for the benefit of the holding under the Land Improvement Loans Act, 1883, or the Agriculturists' Loans Act, 1884, or otherwise by the Local Government; and Ben. Act I of 1895. XIX of 1883. XII of 1884.

(c) nothing in this section shall affect the right to execute a decree for sale of a holding passed, or the terms or conditions of any contract registered, before the first day of January, 1903.

Explanation I.—Where a holding is held under joint landlords, and a decree has been passed for the share of the rent due to one or more, but not all, of them, proviso (a) does not authorise the sale of the holding in execution of such decree.

Explanation II.—Proviso (c) does not render valid any document which is otherwise illegal or invalid, or authorise a Court to take judicial cognizance of any such document. Ben. Act II of 1869.

Restrictions on transfer and sale of Bhuinhari tenures.

49. Where any land in a village, other than land known as manjhihas or bethkheta, is entered in any register prepared and confirmed under the Chota Nagpur Tenures Act, 1869, then—

(a) sections 47 and 48 shall apply also to all members of any Bhuinhari family holding land in such village, and to the land so held, as if they were raiyats and holdings, respectively, with the substitution of "the first day of January, 1908" for "the first day of January, 1903," and

64. (1) The oral or written consent of the landlord for the conversion of land into korkar shall be required in every case except—

(a) where the land was, before such conversion, included in the tenancy of a cultivator who has acquired a right of occupancy in it, or who holds land in such village.

Such consent to be deemed to have been given when ejectment not sought.

65. Where the consent of the landlord is required by section 64 for the conversion of land into korkar, such consent shall be deemed to have been given if, within two years from the date on which the cultivator commenced such conversion, the landlord has not made an application to the Deputy Commissioner for the ejectment of the cultivator.

Power to eject cultivator.

66. When any such application is made, the Deputy Commissioner may, after making such inquiry as he thinks fit, and if he is satisfied that the cultivator has no right to convert the land into korkar, order his ejectment therefrom.

67. Nothing in sections 64 and 65 shall authorize any cultivator to convert into korkar any land which is cultivated land or homestead land in the direct possession of any other person.

72. (1) Any raiyat may relinquish the land held or cultivated by him, provided he gives written notice of his intention to the landlord or his agent in or before the month of Paush of the year preceding that in which the relinquishment is to have effect. [1879, s. 29 Cf. 1885, s. 86.]

(2) If a raiyat fails to give such notice, and the land is not let to any other person, he shall continue liable for the rent of the land.

(3) If the landlord, or his agent, refuses to receive any notice given under sub-section (1) and to sign a receipt for the same, the raiyat may make an application to the Deputy Commissioner, who shall thereupon cause the notice to be served on such person or his agent, in the manner provided by section 252.

Abandonment of land by raiyat.

73. (1) If a raiyat voluntarily abandons the land held or cultivated by him, without notice to the landlord, and ceases either himself or through any other person to cultivate the land and to pay his rent as it falls due, the landlord may, at any time after the expiration of the agricultural year in which the raiyat so abandons and ceases to cultivate, enter on the holding and let it to another tenant or take it into cultivation himself. [1885, s. 87(1) to (3).]

Revision by Revenue-officer.

88. Any Revenue-officer specially empowered by the Local Government in this behalf may, on application or of his own motion, within twelve months from the making of any order or decision under section 84 or section 85, revise the same, whether it was made by himself or by any other Revenue-officer, but not so as to affect any order passed under section 86: [1885, s. 108.]

Provided that no such order or decision shall be so revised if a suit or an appeal in respect thereof is pending under section 86, or until reasonable notice has been given to the parties concerned to appear and be heard in the matter.

Correction by Revenue-officer of mistakes in record-of-rights.

89. Any Revenue-officer specially empowered by the Local Government in this behalf may, on application or of his own motion, within twelve months from the date of the certificate of the final publication of the recordof-rights under sub-section (2) of section 82, correct any entry in such record-of-rights which he is satisfied has been made owing to a bond fide mistake: [1885, s. 108A and Notfn.]

Provided that no such correction shall be made if a suit or an appeal affecting such entry is pending under section 86, sub-section (2), section 110, clause (8) or clause (10), section 246 or section 247, or until reasonable notice has been given to the parties concerned to appear and be heard in the matter.

Stay of proceedings before Deputy Commissioner or Civil Court until expiration of three months after final publication of record-of-rights.

90. (1) When an order has been made under section 79, or under any law in force before the commencement of this Act, directing the preparation of a record-of-rights, then, notwithstanding anything contained in the foregoing sections of this Chapter, no Deputy Commissioner or Civil Court shall, until three months after the final publication of the record-of-rights, entertain any suit or application— [1879, s. 28A. 1885, s. 111 and Notfn.]

(a) in which there is in issue, either directly or indirectly, the existence or non-existence of customary rights to waste-land or jungle-land in any village in the area to which the record-of-rights applies, or

(b) for the alteration of the rent or the determination of the status of any tenant in such area:

Provided that, if any person considers himself aggrieved by any act of waste or damage committed by any other person in respect of any waste-land or jungle-land during the period within which suits and applications are prohibited by this section, he may apply to the Deputy Commissioner, who may, after such inquiry as he thinks fit, by written order, prohibit the continuance of such waste or damage.

(2) The period during which the institution of a suit or the making of an application has been delayed by sub-section (1) shall be excluded in computing the period of limitation provided for such suit or application. [1885, s. 111 B (4).]

Bar to jurisdiction of Courts in matters relating to record-of-rights.

91. No suit shall be brought in any Court in respect of any order directing the preparation of a record-of-rights under this Chapter, or in respect of the framing, publication, signing or attestation of such a record or of any part of it. [1885, s. 111A, para. 1, and Notfn.]

The Chota Nagpur Tenancy and Settlement Bill, 1908.

(Chapter XII.—Record-of-Rights and Settlement of Rents.—Clauses 92—94.)

Stay of applications and suits in which certain issues arise.

92. (1) When a record-of-rights in respect of any land has been prepared under this Chapter, and finally published, no application or suit affecting any such land or any tenant thereof shall, within three months from the date of the certificate of final publication of such record-of-rights, be made or instituted before the Deputy Commissioner or in any Civil Court for the decision of any of the following issues, namely :— [1885, s. 111 s. (1), (4).]

(a) whether the land is or is not liable to the payment of rent;

(b) whether the relation of landlord and tenant exists;

(c) whether the land is part of a particular estate or tenancy;

(d) whether there is any special condition or incident of the tenancy, or

(e) whether any easement attaches to the land.

(2) Where the making of an application or the institution of a suit has been delayed by sub-section (1), the period of three months therein mentioned shall be excluded in computing the period of limitation provided for such suit or application.

Period for which rents entered in the record-of-rights are to remain unaltered.

93. (1) When the rent of an occupancy holding is entered in a record-of-rights which has been prepared and finally published under this Chapter or any law in force before the commencement of this Act, then, subject to the provisions of sections 86, 88 and 89, [1879, s. 288. 1885, s. 113.]

such rent shall not, except on the ground of a landlord's improvement or of a subsequent alteration in the area of the holding, be enhanced or increased for a period of—

(a) fifteen years after the final publication of the record-of-rights, when such publication was made after the commencement of this Act, or

(b) seven years after the final publication of the record-of-rights, when such publication was made before the commencement of this Act;

and no such rent shall be decreased or reduced within the said periods, respectively, save on the ground of alteration in the area of the holding or on the ground that the soil of the holding has, without the fault of the raiyat, become permanently deteriorated by a deposit of sand or other specific cause, sudden or gradual:

Provided that, in any area in respect of which a record-of-rights has been finally published before the commencement of this Act, a Revenue-officer may, on the application of any landlord, made within two years from the commencement of this Act, assess a fair rent on lands which are included in a holding and are assessable with rent but for which no rent has been paid or has been entered as payable in the record-of-rights.

(2) The periods of fifteen years and seven years mentioned in clauses (a) and (b) of sub-section (1) shall be counted from the date of the final publication of the record-of-rights.

Expenses of proceedings under this Chapter.

94. (1) When the preparation of a record-of-rights has been directed or undertaken under this Chapter, [1885, s. 114, & Notfn.]

the expenses incurred in carrying out the provisions of this Chapter in any local area, estate, tenure or part thereof (including expenses that may be incurred at any time, whether before or after the preparation of the record-of-rights, in the maintenance, repair or restoration of boundary-marks and other survey marks erected for the purpose of carrying out the provisions of this Chapter), or such part of those expenses as the Local Government may direct, shall be defrayed by the landlords, tenants and occupants of land in that local area, estate, tenure or part, in such proportions, and in such instalments (if any), as the Local Government, having regard to all the circumstances, may determine.

The Chota Nagpur Tenancy and Settlement Bill, 1908.

(Chapter XII.—Record-of-Rights and Settlement of Rents.—Clauses 95, 96.)

(2) The cost of preparing copies of Survey maps and extracts from records-of-rights under this Chapter for distribution to landlords and tenants shall be deemed to be part of the expenses incurred in carrying out the provisions of this Chapter.

(3) The estimated amount of the expenses likely to be incurred for the maintenance, repair or restoration of boundary-marks for a period not exceeding fifteen years, or such part of such amount as the Local Government may direct, may be recovered in advance in the same manner as if such expenses had been already incurred.

(4) The portion of the expenses referred to in the foregoing provisions of this section which any person is liable to pay shall be recoverable by the Government as if it were an arrear of land-revenue due in respect of the said local area, estate, tenure or part.

Explanation.—The word "tenure" in this section includes all revenue-free and rent-free tenures and holdings within a local area, estate or tenure.

Effect of proceedings in certain cases had in Courts pending final publication of record-of-rights.

95. When an order has been made, under section 79 or under any law in force before the commencement of this Act, directing the preparation of a record-of-rights by a Revenue-officer, then any judgment, decree or order passed by any Court in any suit or proceeding between the making of such first-mentioned order and the final publication of the record-of-rights, and relating to any of the following matters, namely:—

(a) the existence, non-existence, extent or value of customary rights in waste-land or jungle-land in the area to which the record-of-rights applies, or

(b) the amount of rent payable in respect of any tenancy therein, or

(c) the question whether any land which is the subject of dispute is included in the tenancy of a raiyat or is the khas land of the landlord, may be received in evidence in any inquiry made by such Revenue-officer in the course of preparing such record-of-rights, if such judgment, decree or order relates to matters relevant to such inquiry;

but no such judgment, decree or order shall be conclusive proof of that which it states, either in the Court of such Revenue-officer or in any other Court, Civil, Criminal or Revenue, subsequent to the final publication of the record-of-rights.

Power of Revenue-officer to give effect to agreement or compromise.

96. In framing a record-of-rights, and in deciding disputes, under this Chapter, the Revenue-officer shall give effect to any lawful agreement or compromise made or entered into by any landlord and his tenant: [1885, s. 106 (f), (j), and Notfn.]

Provided as follows:—

(a) the Revenue-officer shall not give effect to any agreement or compromise the terms of which, if they were embodied in a contract, could not be enforced under this Act; and

(b) where the terms of any agreement or compromise are such as might unfairly or inequitably affect the rights of third parties, the Revenue-officer shall not give effect to such agreement or compromise unless and until he is satisfied by evidence that the statements made by the parties thereto are correct.

Illustration—A, a proprietor, agrees that B, his tenant, shall be recorded as an occupancy-raiyat. This affects the rights of the tenants of B. The Revenue-officer must, under proviso (b), inquire whether B is a tenure-holder or a raiyat, within the meaning of section 5 or section 6. If he finds, on the evidence, that B is a raiyat, he may give effect to the agreement. If he so finds that B is a tenure-holder, he must not give effect to the agreement.

Date from which settled rent takes effect.

97. When a rent is settled by a Revenue-officer under this Chapter, it shall take effect from the beginning of the agricultural year next after the date of the decision finally fixing the rent. [1885, s. 110.]

Revision of record-of-rights, and new settlement of rents, under orders of Local Government.

98. (1) The Local Government may at any time, either of its own motion or on the application of any landlord or tenant, direct that any record-of-rights which has been finally published under this Act or under any law in force before the commencement of this Act, or any portion of any such record-of rights, be revised, in the prescribed manner, but not so as to affect any rent entered therein. [1885, s. 104G (2) and Notin.]

(2) At any time after the expiration of the period of—

(a) fifteen years from the date of the certificate of the final publication of a record-of-rights, when such publication was made after the commencement of this Act, or

(b) seven years from the date of the certificate of the final publication of a record-of-rights, when such publication was made before the commencement of this Act, and thereafter at intervals of periods of fifteen years, the Local Government may, of its own motion or on the application of any landlord or tenant, direct—

(i) that such record-of-rights or any portion thereof be revised, in the prescribed manner, in so far as it relates to rents, and

(ii) that a settlement of rents payable by tenants be made under section 84.

(3) The foregoing sections of this Chapter shall, subject to any rules made in this behalf under section 256, apply to every revision and settlement referred to in sub-section (1) or sub section (2).

Validation of directions given, before the commencement of this Act, for the record of certain rights.

99. Where a direction has been given, in any order made under section 101 of the Bengal Tenancy Act, 1885, before the commencement of this Act, for the record of any rights of the kind mentioned in clause (n) of section 80 of this Act, such direction shall be deemed to be as valid as if the said clause had been enacted before such order was made. VIII of 1885.

CHAPTER XIII.

PRÆDIAL CONDITIONS, AND THE COMMUTATION AND RECORD THEREOF.

Prohibition against new prædial conditions.

100. (1) From and after the commencement of this Act,— [1897 s. 10 (1).

(a) no tenancy shall be created with any prædial condition attached, other than rent-free tenancies with the sole condition of rendering personal service; and

(b) no new prædial condition shall be imposed on any tenancy in existence at the time of such commencement.

(2) If any landlord creates a tenancy with a prædial condition attached, or imposes a prædial condition on an existing tenancy, in contravention of sub-section (1), he shall not be entitled to enforce the observance of such condition.

Liability of tenant when original conditions of tenancy can not be ascertained.

101. When the original conditions of a tenancy cannot be ascertained, the tenant shall not be liable to any prædial conditions other than or in excess of those to which, by established custom or usage, the general body of the class to which he belongs in the village, tenure or estate in which the lands of the tenancy are situated, is liable:

Provided that, in any case in which prædial conditions have been observed by a tenant for a period of five years continuously, any Revenue-officer acting under this Chapter may, when commuting such conditions under this Chapter, presume that the same are observeable in accordance with established custom or usage or in accordance with an express or implied contract made at the commencement of the tenancy.

Method of calculating present value of prædial condition.

102. When, in any proceedings under this Act, it becomes necessary for a Court to calculate the value of any prædial condition, such value shall be taken to be its average value during the ten years immediately prior to the proceedings, or during any shorter period for which evidence may be available.

The Chota Nagpur Tenancy and Settlement Bill, 1908.

(Chapter XIII.—Prædial Conditions, and the Commutation and Record thereof.—Clauses 103—106.)

Procedure in suit to recover value of prædial conditions.

103. When, in any suit for the recovery of rent, it is sought to recover the value of the prædial conditions appurtenant to a tenancy, an issue may be framed as to whether the value of the prædial conditions, when added to the rent payable in respect of the tenancy, exceeds a fair rent; and, if it is found that the resulting amount exceeds a fair rent, the Court shall decree the rent and so much (if any) of the value of the prædial conditions as, together with the rent, will not exceed a fair rent.

Voluntary commutation of prædial conditions.

104. (1) When any land is held subject to any prædial conditions, the tenant or the landlord may apply in writing to a Revenue-officer for commutation of such conditions. [1897, s. 4.]

(2) The Revenue-officer shall thereupon cause a notice to be served on the landlord or the tenant, as the case may be, and shall fix a day for considering the application; and on such day, or any day thereafter to which the hearing may be adjourned, shall proceed to inquire into the matter and to determine the amount which, in his judgment, is fairly and equitably payable in commutation of such conditions.

(3) In calculating the said amount, the Revenue-officer shall have regard only to the conditions to which the tenant is liable in accordance with established custom or usage or with any contract made when the tenancy commenced, and to the money value of such conditions at the time of making such calculation, and shall follow the procedure prescribed in section 102:

Provided that the amount payable in commutation shall be so fixed that the total annual rent of the land, including such amount as aforesaid, shall not exceed the rent which would be fair and reasonable if the land were not held subject to any prædial conditions.

Power to order record of prædial conditions, with or without commutation.

105. (1) The Local Government may, in any case in which it is, in its opinion, expedient so to do, make an order directing either— [1897, s. 5.]

(a) that a record of all prædial conditions to which the lands within any local area or any estate, tenure or part thereof are subject shall be prepared, and a commutation of such conditions made, by a Revenue-officer; or

(b) that a record as aforesaid be made by a Revenue-officer without commutation of such conditions as aforesaid.

(2) A notification in the Calcutta Gazette of an order under this section shall be conclusive evidence that the order has been duly made.

(3) The record of prædial conditions shall be prepared in the prescribed manner.

Preparation of record.

106. (1) Whenever an order is made under section 105, the Revenue-officer shall thereupon proceed to prepare a record containing the following particulars, namely:— [1897, s. 5.]

(a) the name of each tenant;

(b) the name of his landlord;

(c) the rent payable for the lands held by each tenant at the time the record is being prepared;

(d) the prædial conditions to which all or any of such lands are subject;

(e) the amount which, in the judgment of the Revenue-officer, may fairly be deemed payable in commutation of such conditions, and

(f) such other particulars as the Board may direct.

(2) In calculating the amount payable in commutation of such conditions, the Revenue-officer shall be guided by the provisions of section 104, sub-section (3).

The Chota Nagpur Tenancy and Settlement Bill, 1908.

(Chapter XIII.—Prædial Conditions, and the Commutation and Record thereof.—Clauses 107—110.)

Publication of record.

107. (1) When the Revenue-officer has prepared a record under section 106, he shall cause a draft of the same to be locally published in the prescribed manner and for the prescribed period, and shall receive and consider any objections which may be made to any entry therein or to any omission therefrom during the period of publication. [1897, s. 7.]

(2) When objections have been considered and disposed of in the prescribed manner, the record shall be finally framed and published in the prescribed manner.

(3) Separate drafts or records may be published under sub-section (1) or sub-section (2) for different local areas, estates, tenures or parts thereof.

Appeal from orders of Revenue-officers.

108. (1) An appeal from any order of a Revenue-officer under this Chapter shall lie to the Deputy Commissioner, or to such officer as the Local Government may appoint in this behalf. [1897, s. 8.]

(2) When an appeal has been disposed of under sub-section (1), a further appeal shall lie to the Commissioner.

(3) The provisions of the Code of Civil Procedure relating to appeals shall, as nearly as may be, apply to all appeals under sub-section (1) or sub-section (2). XIV of 1882.

(4) If the Commissioner does not concur with the lower appellate authority, an appeal shall lie to the Board from the order of the Commissioner.

(5) Every appeal under sub-section (1) must be presented within three months, and every appeal under sub-section (2) or sub-section (4) must be presented within one month, from the date of the order appealed against.

Revision by Commissioner or Board.

109. The Commissioner or the Board may direct the revision of any record prepared under this Chapter, or any portion of such record, at any time within two years from the date of the final publication of the record, but not so as to affect any decision from which an appeal has been preferred under section 108: [1897, s. 9.]

Provided that no such direction shall be made until reasonable notice has been given to the parties concerned to appear and be heard in the matter.

Procedure where a survey and record-of-rights are being made.

110. In every local area, estate, tenure or part thereof, in which a survey is being made and a record-of-rights is being prepared under this Act or under any law in force before the commencement of this Act, [1897, s. 9A.]

and in which a record of prædial conditions is being prepared and a commutation thereof is being made under an order issued under section 105, the following provisions shall have effect, instead of those contained in sections 106 to 109, namely :—

(1) The Revenue-officer shall, at the time of attesting the preliminary record, ascertain all the prædial conditions to which, by established custom or usage or by contract made when the tenancy commenced, each tenant is liable, and the cash values of such conditions; and shall prepare a statement, in such form as the Board may direct, showing the conditions and values so ascertained.

(2) In calculating the cash value of such conditions, the Revenue-officer shall be guided by the provisions of section 104, sub-section (3).

The Chota Nagpur Tenancy and Settlement Bill, 1908.

(Chapter XII.—Prædial Conditions, and the Commutation and Record thereof.—Clauses 111—113.)

(3) The Revenue-officer shall enter in the khatiyán of each tenant the cash value of the prædial conditions (if any) to which such tenant is liable, as ascertained under clause (1).

(4) If any tenant is liable, by established custom or usage or by contract made when the tenancy commenced, to any prædial conditions other than those to which the general body of tenants are liable, or is not liable to all the prædial conditions to which the general body of tenants are liable, the Revenue-officer shall also specify in the khatiyán the prædial conditions to which such tenant is liable.

(5) The statement prepared under clause (1), and the entries in the khatiyán, shall be published in draft in the same manner and for the same period as the record-of-rights.

(6) Objections as to entries or omissions in the statement or khatiyán relating to prædial conditions may be made under the same conditions as objections to entries in or omissions from the record-of-rights, and shall be disposed of in the same manner as such objections.

(7) After the disposal of objections, the said statement, and the entries in the khatiyan relating to prædial conditions, shall be finally published at the same time and in the same manner as the record-of-rights.

(8) At any time within three months from the date of the certificate of the final publication of the record-of-rights, a suit may be instituted before a Revenue-officer, for the decision of any dispute regarding any entry in the record relating to prædial conditions or regarding any omission to enter any such conditions in the record; and the Revenue-officer shall hear and decide the dispute.

(9) In all such suits the Revenue-officer shall, subject to any rules made in this behalf under section 256, adopt the procedure laid down in Chapter XVI for the trial of suits.

(10) An appeal shall lie to the Commissioner from any decision of a Revenue-officer under clause (8), if presented within three months from the date of the decision.

Note of decisions in record-of-rights.

111. A note of every decision made by the Revenue-officer under clause (8) of section 110, or by the Commissioner under clause (10) of that section, shall be made in the record-of-rights as finally published under section 82, and such note shall be considered as part of the record.

Decision of question as to whether a payment in kind is a prædial condition or a payment of rent in kind.

112. Where, in any proceeding under this Chapter or under section 35, a question arises as to whether a payment in kind is a prædial condition or a payment of rent in kind, the Revenue-officer acting under this Chapter, or the officer acting under section 35, as the case may be, shall, after such inquiry as he may consider necessary, decide whether in fact the payment is a prædial condition or not.

Commencement and effect of commutation.

113. (1) When the commutation of any prædial conditions is settled under this Chapter, for any local area or estate, tenure or part thereof, the settlement shall take effect from the beginning of the agricultural year next after the final publication of the record. [1897, s. 10.

The Chota Nagpur Tenancy and Settlement Bill, 1908.

(Chapter XIII.—Prædial Conditions, and the Commutation and Record thereof.—Chapter XIV.—Record of Landlords' Privileged Lands.—Clauses 114—117.]

(2) The amount determined by a Revenue-officer under this Chapter to be payable by a tenant in commutation of prædial conditions shall be deemed to be part of the rent payable by the tenant, and shall be recoverable accordingly.

Expenses of voluntary commutation.

114. (1) The Revenue-officer may require any person applying for commutation under section 104 to deposit in advance the whole or any part of the estimated amount of the expenses to be incurred thereunder. [1897, s. 11.]

(2) When in any case the proceedings under section 104 have been completed, the Revenue-officer shall apportion the total expenses thereof between the landlord and tenant in such proportion as, having regard to all the circumstances, he may deem fit; and the amounts so apportioned shall be recoverable as an arrear of land-revenue.

(3) If the amount deposited by any person in pursuance of sub-section (1) exceeds the sum apportioned to him under sub-section (2), the excess shall, when the proceedings have been completed, be refunded to him.

Expenses of record and compulsory commutation.

115. (1) The expenses incurred by the Government in carrying out in any local area or any estate, tenure or part thereof any order made under section 105, or such part of those expenses as the Local Government may direct, shall be defrayed by the landlords and tenants of land in that local area, estate, tenure or part, in such proportions as the Local Government, having regard to all the circumstances, may determine. [1897, s. 12.]

(2) The portion of the aforesaid expenses which any person is liable to pay shall be recoverable by the Government as if it were an arrear of land-revenue due in respect of the said local area, estate, tenure or part.

Explanation.—The word "tenure" in this section includes all revenue-free and rent-free tenures and holdings within a local area, estate or tenure.

Saving of right to claim reduction or enhancement of rent.

116. No proceedings under this Chapter shall bar the right of any tenant or landlord to claim a reduction or enhancement of rent under this Act after such proceedings have been completed. [1897, s. 12A.]

CHAPTER XIV.

RECORD OF LANDLORDS' PRIVILEGED LANDS.

Definition of "landlords' privileged lands"

117. (1) The expression "landlords' privileged lands," as used in this Chapter, means— [1879, s. 6, para 1. 1885, ss. 116, 120 (1) (a).]

(a) lands—

(i) which are cultivated by the proprietor himself with his own stock or by his own servants or by hired labour, or are held by a tenant under a lease for a term of years or from year to year, and which were, by custom, recognised, before the first day of January, 1905, as privileged land in which occupancy-rights could not accrue, and

(ii) which are entered in a record prepared by a Revenue-officer under this Chapter after he has satisfied himself that they rightly fall under sub-clause (i) of this section, and

(b) lands which are entered as manjhihas or bethkheta in any register prepared and confirmed under the Chota Nagpur Tenures Act, 1869. Ben. Act I of 1869.

Provided that, when a record of such lands has been or is being made by a Revenue-officer under section 118, no application shall be entertained under this section.

Procedure of Revenue-officer.

120. In any inquiry as to whether any land is or is not a landlord's privileged land, a Revenue-officer acting under this Chapter shall proceed in the prescribed manner, and shall presume that such land is not a landlord's privileged land until the contrary is proved. [1885, s. 120 (2).]

(3) In preparing such record the Revenue-officer shall, as far as practicable, follow the procedure provided for Revenue-officers acting under Chapter XII.

Notice of entries to interested persons.

124. At the time of the final publication of a record prepared by a Revenue-officer under this Chapter, that officer shall cause a copy of the entries therein to be served, in the prescribed manner, on all persons interested in such entries, so far as such persons can be ascertained.

(2) The said summons shall order the defendant to produce any document which he has in his possession and of which the plaintiff demands inspection, or upon which the defendant may intend to rely in support of his defence; and shall also enjoin the defendant to bring his witnesses with him if they are willing to attend without issue of process.

Issue of warrant for arrest of defendant.

150. (1) If, in any suit against a tenant for the recovery of an arrear of rent, or against an agent for the recovery of any money, papers or accounts, the plaintiff desires a warrant of arrest to be issued against the defendant, such defendant being resident within the district in which the suit is instituted, he shall present with his statement of claim an application for the issue of such warrant. [1879, s. 57.]

(2) When such application is presented, the Deputy Commissioner shall examine the plaintiff or his agent, according to the law for the time being in force for the examination of witnesses, and shall inspect the documents adduced by him in support of his claim; and, if there be primâ facie grounds for believing the claim to be well founded, and that, if a summons be issued, the defendant will abscond instead of appearing to answer the claim, the Deputy Commissioner may issue a warrant, in the prescribed form, for the arrest of the defendant:

Provided that no such warrant shall be issued in a suit for arrears of rent due in respect of a tenure or holding which is liable to sale in execution of any decree which may be passed in the case.

152. (1) If the defendant is arrested under such warrant, he shall be brought with all convenient speed before the Deputy Commissioner; and the Deputy Commissioner shall commit him to the civil jail unless he deposits in Court the money, papers or accounts specified in the notice delivered to him under section 150, sub-section (4), and shall with all convenient speed proceed to try the case in the manner hereinafter provided. [1879, ss. 58, 59.]

154. If it appears to the Deputy Commissioner that the arrest of the defendant was applied for without reasonable cause, the Deputy Commissioner may, in his decree, award to the defendant such sum, not exceeding one hundred rupees, as he may deem a reasonable compensation for any injury or loss which the defendant may have sustained by reason of such arrest or of his detention in jail during the pendency of the suit. [1879, s. 61.]

[1879, s. 64.]

Hearing of defendant on day to which case is postponed.

158. If the defendant appears on any subsequent day to which the hearing of the suit may be postponed under section 157, the Deputy Commissioner may, upon such conditions (if any) as to costs or otherwise as he may think proper, allow the defendant to be heard in answer to the suit as if he had appeared on the day fixed for his attendance. [1879, s. 65.]

Production of witnesses.

159. The parties shall bring forward their witnesses on the day of trial; and, if either party requires assistance to procure the attendance of a witness on such day, either to give evidence or to produce a document, he shall apply to the Deputy Commissioner in sufficient time before such day to enable the witness to be summoned to attend on that day; and the Deputy Commissioner shall issue a summons requiring such witness to attend. 163. Any party to a suit before the Deputy Commissioner under this Act may employ an agent to conduct the case on his behalf; but the appointment of an agent shall not excuse the personal attendance of the plaintiff or defendant in cases where his personal attendance is required by the summons or by any order of the Deputy Commissioner. [1879, ss. 68, 70.]

(2) If either of the parties is not bound to attend personally, any agent by whom he appears, or any person who accompanies such agent, shall be examined and cross-examined in like manner as the party himself would have been if he had attended personally.

such third person shall be made a party to the suit, and the question of the actual payment of the rent to such third person in good faith shall be inquired into, and the suit shall be decided according to the result of such inquiry:
